

Varicosity Vein Center Expands

Varicosity Vein Center expands their Birmingham location.

March 18, 2009: Varicosity Vein Center is currently expanding their main varicose vein treatment facility in Birmingham, Alabama. Historically, the center's office has been on the 2nd floor of building 880 at the Trinity Medical Center. They are now located in suite 380, on the 3rd floor of the same building, which provides for more treatment rooms as well as office space for the organization.

Dr. Randleman Jr. stated, "With additional space, our dedicated team of professionals will be able to manage the ever growing need for vein care in the Birmingham area."
